

Holy Communion on Wednesday 31st March at 7:30pm

On the Wednesday (March 31) before Easter, we will mark the Last Supper of Jesus. At the Last Supper, Jesus gave several final commands to His disciples - to love one another, to serve one another and to remember Him through the breaking of the bread. Through this worship service we will remember the final 24 hours of Jesus' life on earth, and we will share Holy Communion in remembrance of the Last Supper. It will be led by Rev Dr Phil Marshall
